

Ace Robison is Chairman of Robison/Seidler, Inc., a Nevada-based consulting firm specializing in strategic planning, government affairs, and issue management in the energy, water, environmental management and education sectors.

Mr. Robison has extensive experience in public and governmental affairs having served in both the legislative and executive branches of the federal government.

Prior to the formation of Robison/Seidler, Mr Robison served as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Energy for Congressional, Intergovernmental and Public Affairs, and as Chief of Staff to Senator Paul Laxalt of Nevada. He also previously served as Senator Laxalt's Regional Assistant in Nevada.

In 2004, Mr Robison was appointed to the Colorado River Commission by Nevada Governor Kenny Guinn.

Prior to his public service, Mr. Robison was an executive with Xerox Corporation in Nevada. He has always been active in the state and local community, serving on many volunteer boards and committees.

A native Nevadan, Mr Robison has, for many years, involved himself in Nevada civic issues and was Chairman of the Nevada Republican Party. He is a graduate of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.