

WNU Nuclear Olympiad 2019 Final Panel of Expert Judges

Aleksandra Peeva is Communication Officer with the IAEA. She has previously worked as a communication expert with various non-governmental and intergovernmental organisations, including the United Nations and the European Union. Aleksandra holds a master's degree in communication studies from the University of Salzburg in Austria.

Naoual Bentaleb from Morocco holds the degrees of a Doctorate in pharmacy from the University of Mohamed V of Rabat; Radiopharmacy diploma from the National Institute of Nuclear Science and Techniques INSTN of Paris. She has more than 12 years of experience in Radiopharmacy. She is currently the radiopharmacist responsible and head of radiopharmaceuticals production division at the National Centre for Nuclear Energy, Science and Technology (CNESTEN) – Morocco.

Valery Radchenko is a research scientist at TRIUMF (Canada) in 2016, where he is working on utilization of TRIUMF infrastructure for production of therapeutic radionuclides (e.g. ^{225}Ac for target alpha therapy, ^{119}Sb for auger therapy and others). He works together with local and international collaboration partners on chelation, in vitro and in vivo application aspects.

Vaishali Patel is Marketing and Communication Manager at World Nuclear Association. She has over 10 years' experience working in marketing and communication roles across a range of industries. Vaishali has a CIM Professional Certificate in Marketing and BSc (Hons) degree in Psychology

Alina Constantin is an ex-Fellow 2014 of the WNU leadership development programme, the Summer Institute. She has been since working as a consultant for WNU organizing the Summer Institute and the Alumni event in 2018 – the Extended Leadership Development Workshop. Alina has a PhD in chemical engineering from University Politehnica of Bucharest and more than 10yr experience in radioactive waste management related issues. She works as a researcher at the Institute for Nuclear Research Romania but was also intensively involved in international activities, working as a consultant for IAEA and also for the World Nuclear Association. Alina's interests expand to nuclear policies, stakeholder engagement, strategic planning, nuclear business development..